

Policy Change
Admission to Multiple Programs
Approved by the Graduate Council on May 4, 2023

Previous Policy

Students can only be enrolled in one graduate program at a time. Prospective students can apply and be accepted into more than one graduate program but may only accept the offer and enroll in one graduate program at a time.

<https://catalog.jmu.edu/content.php?catoid=49&navoid=2523>

Approved Revision

With the knowledge and consent of the directors of the programs, students may concurrently enroll in no more than two graduate degree programs. They may also enroll in multiple concentrations of a graduate degree program, or a degree program and one or more certificates.