

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS STRATEGIC PLANNING PROCESS

THE OUTCOME:

An Academic Affairs Strategic Plan that will guide decision making from 2020 to 2026, which is based on:

1. Input from the Academic Affairs community and beyond
2. A comprehensive analysis of relevant environmental factors
3. Future trends expected to influence Academic Affairs

GUIDANCE TEAM Appointed by Provost Coltman

GUIDANCE TEAM ROLE:

1. Provides general guidance to the Strategic Planning Committee
2. Supports the activities of the Strategic Planning Committee
3. Serve as the "internal customers" of the AASP Committee.
4. The Guidance Team will run interference, conjure resources, provide advice and help set direction.

AA SP CO-CHAIRS Dr. Robert Aguirre Mr. Rick Larson

Part-Time Administrative Assistant
Vanessa Ehrenpreis

AA STRATEGIC PLANNING COMMITTEE

17 People

COMMITTEE ROLE:

1. Recommend a strategic plan by January 30, 2020 that includes an updated mission statement, values, vision statement and strategic goals for implementation from 2020 to 2026.
2. Establish procedures to ensure communication, transparency and participation from all corners of Academic Affairs and beyond.
3. Complete an environmental scan and research into future trends, issues and other factors to inform the plan.