Majors

In this section, you have the option to declare an intended Major of Study.

After selecting a Major, details will be provided about the program. You will also be asked to select an application term (early/regular) and confirm your choice.

You will also be provided with the “Undecided/Exploratory” option in this section.

The screenshot displays the 'Application for Undergraduate Admission' portal. On the left, a vertical sidebar titled 'Application Sections' lists various steps: Applicant Information, Personal and Contact Information, Family Information, Education, Coursework, Intended Major (highlighted with a purple arrow), Academic Plans, Additional Information, In-State Tuition, and Checklist. The main content area is titled 'Application for Undergraduate Admission' and includes a note that an asterisk indicates a required field. It explains that the Admissions Committee considers applicants without regard to their intended major and that some majors require a separate application after completing lower-level coursework. A link is provided for users not seeing their area of interest. Below this is a section for 'Primary Intended Major' with a search box labeled 'Search for a Major' and a text input field 'Type to Search'. A list of majors is shown, including Accounting, Anthropology, Architectural Design, Art - Studio, Art History, Biology, Biophysical Chemistry, Biotechnology, Business Management, Chemistry, Communication Sciences and Disorders, and Communication Studies. An inset window shows the 'Political Science' major details, including a 'Select Term' dropdown and a 'Confirm Major' button. The 'Major Info' section describes the department's commitment and lists career paths such as Administration and management, Federal, state and local government, International organizations, Law, Not-for-profit organizations, Politics, and Private sector.

For Transfer Students

When identifying your intended major, you will still be provided details about the selected program, and you will also be asked which term you are applying for and plan to transfer in to.

Major Info

The School of Accounting offers a Bachelor of Business Administration (B.B.A.) degree and a Master of Science (M.S.) degree in accounting. Most of our students choose to receive both degrees and thereby satisfy the 150 semester hours of education required in most states to be eligible to sit for the CPA exam. Students receiving bachelor's degrees at other institutions are also encouraged to apply for the Master of Science program. The School of Accounting is committed to preparing students to be active and engaged citizens who are able to apply accounting and business knowledge for the betterment of individuals and organizations. We value an environment of educational excellence in which students develop both technical and interpersonal skills necessary for successful professional accounting careers.
