

Your First and Last Name

Email | Phone Number

EDUCATION

---

Master of Arts in History, James Madison University, Harrisonburg, VA May 20XX

U.S. History Concentration

Thesis: Revisiting the American Revolution: A Social History of Ordinary Citizens' Experiences and Contributions

Bachelor of Arts in History, James Madison University, Harrisonburg, VA May 20XX

Cum Laude | Public History Concentration

HISTORY EXPERIENCE

---

Editor Aug 20XX – Present

Harrisonburg, VA | Madison Historical Review

- Provide feedback on submitted works of original historical research including topics such as the Renaissance period, the Industrial Revolution, and the Civil Rights Movement
- Managed and mentored a team of 3 student reviewers, coordinating the review of historical research reports, ensuring adherence to editorial guidelines, and providing support to enhance scholarly impact

Archives Assistant Jan 20XX – April 20XX

Rockingham, VA | Rockingham County Courthouse

- Organized, cataloged, and assisted with preservation of archival materials, including documents, photographs, and artifacts
- Digitized and indexed archival materials to enhance accessibility and facilitate research
- Authored bimonthly articles for a local newspaper on Rockingham County history which were successfully published

Exhibit Intern May 20XX – Aug 20XX

Washington, DC | Smithsonian Museum of American History

- Conducted extensive research utilizing historical documents and manuscripts, historical maps, and academic journals for an exhibit comparing 17th-century American daily life to modern life, focusing on technological advancements and societal changes for a diverse public
- Designed and produced over 30 visuals, graphics, and multimedia components, including infographics, digital displays, and interactive exhibits to contribute to the visual storytelling in various exhibits

Public Engagement Intern May 20XX – Aug 20XX

Shenandoah, VA | National Park Service, Shenandoah National Park

- Researched residents of the Shenandoah Valley in the 19th century for a future exhibit on life before the park
- Contributed to outreach and educational initiatives to promote awareness of archival collections and resources

SKILLS

---

Historical research, archival management, editing, source evaluation, content creation