

Allen T. Wilson

Allen T. Wilson serves as University Counsel at Old Dominion University. He provides legal advice and representation on a wide variety of legal matters including conflicts of interest, contract and procurement matters, intellectual property, legislative and regulatory review, requests for records, personnel matters, and student issues.

Al began his service with the Office of the Attorney General in January 2002. Prior to his appointment at ODU, Al served as lead counsel to the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia, as well as Radford University. Prior to joining the Office of the Attorney General in 2002, Al worked in the Roanoke City Attorney's Office and was in private practice as a sole practitioner. He graduated from Virginia Tech in 1988 and the University of Dayton School of Law in 1991.