

Dawn Taylor

Dawn Taylor is the Audit Manager at Radford University, her alma mater. Dawn provides leadership to the internal audit staff, manages the university's operational and informational technology audits, conducts fraud, waste, and abuse reviews, and manages the department's internship program. Dawn also performs advisory services where she serves as a trusted advisor who delivers risk-based information, insight, and education to members of the university community.

Dawn has approximately 27 years of auditing experience, with more than 15 of those in Higher Education. Prior to working for the Commonwealth of Virginia, Dawn worked at a Fortune 100 pharmaceutical company where she was responsible for performing internal and 3rd party audits. Dawn holds a Master of Business Administration and holds a Certification in Risk Management Assurance (CRMA). Dawn is active in the profession and was recently elected to the Southwest Virginia Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors as their Programming Officer. She previously held a Board of Governors position and continues to be an active volunteer for the chapter.

Dawn is a member of the IIA, ACUA, ISACA and the ACFE. In her spare time Dawn serves on the Advisory Council for the New River Valley Agency on Aging and is an avid rockhound.
