

Request for Late Arrival Fall 2024

Please complete this form and submit to iss@jmu.edu if you are unable to arrive to James Madison University by August 11, 2024, for the start of International Graduate Student Orientation, which begins on August 12, 2024.

Name: _____

Have you received your F-1 visa? Yes or No

If no, what is the date of your scheduled F-1 visa appointment? _____

Briefly, explain reason(s) for requesting to arrive after the start of orientation? _____

Program of Study

Program of study at JMU: _____

Name of Program Director or Advisor: _____

Have you discussed your late arrival date with your program director or advisor? Yes or No

Does your program have an orientation? Yes or No

If yes, what is your program's orientation date(s): _____

Have you registered for your first semester classes? Yes or No

Will you need to miss one or more classes because of your late arrival? Yes or No

If yes, list Prefix, Course Number and Instructor Name for classes that you will miss:

Employment

Do you have a Graduate Assistantship? Yes or No

If yes, with what department? _____

What is the name of your supervisor? _____

Do you already have a US Social Security Number (SSN)? Yes or No

Adjustment

Have you studied in the US before? Yes or No

Have you secured housing in Harrisonburg? Yes or No

If yes, what date does your lease begin? _____

Travel

Have you scheduled your flight(s) to the US? Yes or No

If yes, what date does your flight land in the US? _____

Based on your flight(s) to the US, when will you arrive in Harrisonburg? _____

International Students and Scholar Services

The Graduate School

FOR REVIEWERS' USE ONLY

Recommendation: late arrival or deferral

Latest date of arrival: _____ or Defer to: _____ (term)

Confirmed with graduate program: _____

Confirmed with graduate admissions director: _____

Confirmed with graduate assistantship site and TGS Assistantship team: _____