CONDUCTA

Behavior / Cuba

Sponsored by JMU Latin American & Caribbean Studies Committee

In a film that has taken Cuba by storm, Conducta pulls together dual journeys that might not otherwise intersect so credibly. An impoverished but colorful barrio in Havana is the setting for this unpredictable melodrama about the refreshingly un sentimental tight rapport between a seventy year old, open-minded grade-school teacher, and an 11-year-old high-octane, rebellious boy. 108 min.

LLÉVASELO TODO

All Of Me / Mexico

This documentary gives audiences an intimate insight into the Patronas, a group of Mexican women who, every day since 1995, make food and toss it to the migrants who travel atop the freight train "The Beast" as it makes it way to the U.S. A brave and remarkable example of love and solidarity that contrasts with the violence of one of the cruelest stretches in the world for undocumented travelers. 90 min.
