

Below are a number of gift packages. Some of the presents are gifts that you have given to other people, and some are gifts that you have received from others. Write in each box what you are thankful to have received from someone else, or what you are thankful that you have given to someone else. (Hint: these should be non-physical gifts).

