

If you've been sexually assaulted and...

You need medical attention.

For immediate 24-hour help, call 911.

For additional help, call the University Health Center \(UHC\) 540-568-6178 or Sentara RMH 540-689-1000.

You want a confidential conversation.

Almost all JMU faculty and staff must report incidents of sexual harassment or assault involving students to the Title IX Coordinator.

These offices/staff are NOT required to report such incidents:

Victim Advocacy

On-campus Advocacy
SSC 3rd Floor
540-568-6251
victimadvocacy@jmu.edu

Collins Center

Off-campus Advocacy &
24-hour hotline
217 S. Liberty St, Suite 205
540-432-6430

Counseling Center

SSC 3rd Floor
540-568-6552

You want help from the University.

JMU Title IX | Madison Hall 4035 | 540-568-5214

Title IX treats all reports with care and discretion. They offer resources like assistance with academics, housing, no contact orders, and the campus conduct process. Visit www.jmu.edu/access-and-enrollment/titleIX to review options or make a report.

You want to make a report.

Options include:

- JMU Police | Anthony-Seeger Hall | 540-568-6911
 - Harrisonburg Police | 409 South Main Street | 540-434-4436
 - Rockingham County Sheriff | 25 South Liberty Street | 540-564-3800
-

Make sure you are safe. JMU Police or local law enforcement can provide protection/assistance at 540-568-6911 or 911.

If you want to make a report:

Within a certain time frame, physical evidence can be recovered by a medical professional through a PERK kit at no cost to you. To learn more, contact a confidential resource, Sentara RMH, UHC or law enforcement.

These resources are also available if you have experienced interpersonal violence or stalking.

Remember that the assault was not your fault.

You are not alone. There are people who can help.

 Victim Advocacy